Stay cozy near the slopes

Hotel centrally located near main ski resorts of Aosta valley Italy

Bitch Snowboards was started by designer and photographer Alex Masterson and aims at "bitchy" and self-confident women, who are looking into snowboarding and are interested to start a new sport. Bitch Snowboards combine high-resolution photographs and shows everyday themes like crumpled tissue paper or wet leaves in a street. The San Diego-based company limits its range to one product line, available in different sizes and graphics, so that Bitchboard makes each graphic available in every board length. Pardon our french.
